

Aylin Orbasli

Professor of Architectural and Urban Heritage at Oxford Brookes University, UK, and independent heritage consultant with 30 years international experience with a focus on the Middle East. Trained as an architect, the focus of much of her research and consultancy is heritage management, tourism and heritage and World Heritage Sites. She has published three books and numerous academic papers on these subjects.

Aylin is an expert member of the ICOMOS International Cultural Tourism and Training committees, Deputy-Chair of the British Institute at Ankara, member of the Royal Institute of British Architects Conservation Group and member of the Chichester Cathedral Fabric Advisory Committee. She has been involved with Herity since 2000.